

Dr. Minal Kekatpure, MBBS, MD, Fellowship in Pediatric Neurology

Dr. Minal Kekatpure is a Consultant Pediatric Neurologist who completed her MBBS and MD (Pediatrics) from Government Medical College, Nagpur, and further did a Pediatric Neurology Fellowship from Weill Cornell Medical College, New York, where she was also part of a team involved in Gene Therapy Trials for Neurodegenerative disorders in children.

Additionally, she has experience and training in Neuroradiology (Weill Cornell Medical College, New York). Her work experience before joining the Narayana Hrudayalaya Institute of Neurosciences includes Senior residency at PGI, Chandigarh, Assistant Professor in Pediatric Neurology at Amrita Institute of Medical Sciences, Kochi, Kerala, and Associate Scientist in Pediatric Neurology at Weill Cornell Medical College, New York. She has presented numerous talks on Neurometabolic and Neurodevelopmental disorders, both internationally and regionally, and has several International and National Publications to her credit.

Special Interests: Disorders of Neurodevelopment including Autism, Cerebral Palsy and Neurometabolic & Neurogenetic disorders.