

Dr. Anand Muller Pattan

MBBS, MS, M Ch (Urology)

Consultant Urologist

Dr Pattan graduated in medicine in 1987. He went on to acquire further qualifications in surgery with additional qualifications and specialisation in urology. He has over two decades of experience in academics and medical practice.

Dr Pattan has served in key academic assignments at leading medical institutions. He has also served as Consultant Urologist in several speciality and super speciality hospitals in India. He has published several papers and made presentations at national and international fora. He receives patients regularly from other parts of the country and also from the UK, USA and African countries. He is one of the few Urologists in the country practicing HoLEP (Holmium Laser Enucleation of Prostate)

Areas of expertise:

- Laser applications in urology
- RIRS (Retrograde Intrarenal Surgery)
- Laser prostatectomy (HOLEP)
- Laparoscopic /Minimal access Urology
- Endourology TURP/TUR Bladder tumor
- Ureteroscopy
- Percutaneous renal store surgery (tubeless/mini PCNL etc.)
- Reconstructive Urology - congenital problems, urethral stricture diseases.
- Uro oncology
- Paediatric Urology
- AREAS OF INTEREST/STRENGTHS - One of the few Urologists in the country practicing HoLEP (Holmium Laser Enucleation of Prostate)
- Rich experience in lower urinary tract surgery, upper tract surgery, particularly percutaneous renal surgery with a large series of bilateral, complex and tubeless PCNLs
- Vast experience in urethral stricture surgery, hypospadias procedures and paediatric reconstructive procedures for congenital abnormalities

- Extensive experience in minimal access surgery - have devised own technique of endoscopy aided "keyhole surgery" Experienced in laparoscopic ablative and reconstructive procedures